This may seem like an inappropriate request for so much personal information. We hope that you trust us to protect this information. All of the above is required by the State of Colorado to apply for a big game license. If a tag is not drawn a preference point will be earned and a refund will be mailed directly to you. The deadline for applying is April and refunds arrive no later than June. The Bluffs will charge a $50 fee for applying that is refundable if you draw and book with Russell.
